Artist Series opens Sept. 26 with Tallahassee Ballet

The Chipola College Artist Series opens Sept. 26 with “The Tallahassee Ballet.”

The troupe will present an evening of classical and contemporary dance works performed to the music of Bach, Schubert and Schumann. The program will draw from works by renowned choreographers Danielle Genest, choreographer and dancer from New York City; FSU Department of Dance Professor Rick McCullough; TTB’s Resident Choreographer Dr. Kathryn Cashin, and Henry Hernandez, TTB’s new Artistic Director. Audiences also will enjoy classical favorites such as variations from The Nutcracker and TTB’s new ballet, Beauty and the Beast.

The Chipola Artist Series is funded through Chipola’s Performing Arts Fund, with grants from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Southern Arts Federation, the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, the Chipola Regional Arts Association and corporate donors.

Season tickets—$40 for all four events—entitle holders to same seat reserved seats, invitations to the “Meet The Artist” receptions and subscriptions to the CRAA arts calendar. A limited number of individual event tickets—$12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under—will be available prior to each performance at the Chipola Business Office.

CHIPOLA FACC SCHOLARS—The Chipola College chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges recently awarded $10,500 in scholarships to children of college employees. Recipients and their employee parents, are: from left: Bonnie Smith, Kevin Smith, Lisa Shores, Kevin Shores, Meghan Holley, Janice Holley, Martin Fowler, Paul Fowler, Aaron Neal and Tammy Neal. SGA makes plans for Fall Festival

Fall Festival will be held Wednesday, October 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., on the lawn in front of the Health Center.

Each Chipola club needs to have a five member team ready to participate in the relay and tug-of-war competitions. T-shirts will be given to the winners. The team members will need to be there by 10:15 a.m., with relays beginning at 10:30 a.m. Team members should sign up in the SGA office by Monday, October 2.

The event will feature free food and drinks for all to enjoy, with a menu of hamburgers, hotdogs and Subway cookies and great door prizes during lunch.

Party Hoppers soft play games will be on hand again this year. Several universities will have recruiters on hand.

Florida Springs Task Force leader to speak at Chipola

Jim Stevenson, former Chief Biologist for the Florida Park System, will discuss the work of the Florida Springs Task Force, Thursday, Sept. 28, at 6:30 p.m., in the Chipola Arts Center.

Stevenson coordinates the Wakulla Springs Basin and the Ichetucknee Springs Basin Working Groups. During his 20 years with the Florida Park system he developed the educational and the land management programs for the park system. Jim retired in 2003, after 38 years with the Department of Environmental Protection. He chaired the Florida Springs Task Force that developed a protection strategy for Florida’s springs and served as Director of the Governor’s Florida Springs Protection Initiative. In recognition of his dedication, the State of Florida named a spring on the Suwannee River “Stevenson Spring” in his honor. For his longstanding stewardship of public lands, the Governor and Cabinet created the Department of Environmental Protection’s “Jim Stevenson Resource Manager of the Year Award.”

Stephenson’s presentation at the college is part of an ongoing lecture series slated in conjunction with the “Apalachicola River: An American Treasure,” exhibit now on display in the Arts Center.

Guests will have the opportunity to view the exhibit of large black and white photographs by Clyde Butcher and Richard Bickel, and the documentary film by Elam Stoltzfus. The show also is open to the public, weekdays, 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; Thursdays, 6 to 9 p.m. and Sundays, 2 to 4 p.m., through Oct. 12.

On Friday, Sept. 29, at 10 a.m., Edd Sorensen, Certified Cave Diver and dive shop owner on Merritt’s Mill Pond, will discuss Blue Springs and underwater caverns.

On Thursday, Oct. 5, at 6:30 p.m., Dan Tonsmeire, Executive Director of Apalachicola Riverkeeper, and Helen M. Light of the U.S. Geological Survey, will discuss their work to protect the river and its tributaries.

On Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 10 a.m., Dr. Steven J. Herrington, Apalachicola River and Bay Project Coordinator with the Nature Conservancy will discuss protection of natural resources in the Panhandle.

On Thursday, Oct. 12, 6:30 p.m., musician Sammy Tedder will perform original music and discuss hand-made instruments.

The Apalachicola exhibit is made possible locally by the Chipola Area Board of REALTORS®, the Marianna Automobile Dealers Association, the Jackson County Tourist Development Council and Friends of the Florida Caverns. Members of the Chipola Regional Arts Association and the Artists Guild of Northwest Florida are hosting the exhibit.

Cast announced for ‘I Hate Hamlet’

The Chipola College Theater is in full rehearsal for the Paul Rudnick comedy, “I Hate Hamlet,” which opens a four-day run, Nov. 2.

Chipola Theater director Charles Sirmon recently cast local actors in the following roles: Brittany Holmes as Felicia Dantine, Kevin Russell as Andrew Rally, Shannon Grice as Deirdre McDavey, Danuta Jacob as Lillian Troy, Mike Milton as John Barrymore and Chris Calton as Gary Peter Lefkowitz. Rowdy Wilbur will serve as the stage manager for the show.

“I Hate Hamlet,” spins the tale of a young and successful television actor who relocates to New York, where he rents a marvelous, gothic apartment. With his career in limbo, the actor is offered the opportunity to play Hamlet onstage, but there’s one problem: he hates Hamlet. His dilemma deepens with the entrance of John Barrymore’s ghost, who arrives intoxicated and in full costume to the apartment that once was his.

The contrast between the two actors, the towering Barrymore whose Hamlet was the greatest of his time, and Andrew Rally, hot young television star, leads to a wildly funny duel over women, art, success, duty, television and yes, the apartment.
