Chipola Basketball opens home season

The Chipola Junior College men's and women's basketball teams host five games this week in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

The Lady Indians open the home season Tuesday, Nov. 7, at 5 p.m. as they play host to Darton Community College.

Both Chipola squads host a huge weekend of basketball action Nov. 10-11, with the Chipola Women's Classic and the Milton H. Johnson Men's Classic. The Lady Indians host Gadsden CC on Friday, Nov. 10 at 3:30 p.m., and Daytona on Saturday, Nov. 11 at 3:30 p.m. North Florida meets Daytona at 1:30, Nov. 10, and Gadsden at 1:30 on Nov. 11.

In the Milton H. Johnson Classic, the Indians host St. John's River at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 10, and Tyler CC (TX) on Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. Tallahassee CC hosts Tyler and St. John's River in the 5:30 pre-view games on Nov. 10 and 11.

The Indians host the gigantic Panhandle Classic, Nov. 17 and 18, in an event nearly as big as the state tournament. The ten-game extravaganza tips off at Noon both days and climaxes with Chipola hosting Palm Beach on Nov. 17 at 8 p.m., and Santa Fe on Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. Other visiting teams include Westchester, Cincinnati State, Daytona, Gulf Coast, Okaloosa-Walton, Pensacola and Tallahassee.

Happy Birthday CJC Family

There are no birthdays this week.

NEW BABY

Willie Gay in the Physical Plant welcomed a daughter, McKinzie Isabelle Marie Gay, on Tuesday, Oct. 31 at Jackson Hospital. She weighed in at seven pounds, one ounce and 19.5 inches.

FSU BOUND

Students who plan to graduate with an A.A. in December and attend FSU in the Spring, should apply immediately. Applications must be submitted via U.S. Mail. The online application option is not available. Applications are available in Student Services.

REPS ON CAMPUS

Representatives from FSU-Panama City will be in the Social Science Building from 9 a.m. to noon on Nov. 16 and 30. Chuck Stickle (Social Science Education) and Dr. Kathy Davis (Elementary Education) will be available to talk with students.

CONGRATULATIONS

John Watson, Chipola Junior College computer electronics instructor, recently earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from California Coast University. CJC president Dr. Dale O'Daniel presented Watson a check for $500. O'Daniel has pledged a $500 bonus for CJC administrative and career service employees who earn a bachelor's or advanced degree.

Chvatal/Kritzer duo to perform at CJC

The Chipola Artist series will present The Chvatal/Kritzer Duo at the Chipola Junior College Theater, Tuesday, Nov. 14, at 7 p.m.

Soprano, Janet Chvatal, one of Europe's rising opera celebrities, (and star of the Phantom of the Opera) in Vienna, teams up with top classical guitarist, Scott Kritzer, in a program that will feature North and South American Folk Songs, exotic works from Spain, and beloved opera melodies including the famous "Habanera" from Carmen and Gershwin's "Summertime."

Chvatal, a young coloratura, recently made her first Compact Disc recording under the SONY Label and appeared in a live telecast of "Famous Scenes from Opera" for Germany's largest television network ARD; a series which airs to millions of Europeans over the next several seasons.

Guitarist Scott Kritzer [pronounced Crytser], has performed numerous critically acclaimed recitals on two continents including concerts in New York's Carnegie Recital Hall and Wigmore Hall in London, as well as performances in Los Angeles,

San Francisco, Cincinnati, Las Vegas and Sapporo, Japan. Kritzer recently performed for the California Center for the Performing Arts in Escondido. Other performers on the series included Itzhak Perlman, Ivo Pogorelich, Cecilia Bartoli and the Emerson String Quartet. Kritzer's performance was sold-out eight months in advance.

Two other performances are scheduled in the 2000-01 Chipola Artist Series. Chicago City Limits, comedy and improvisation, hits the stage Jan. 8. New York's longest running comedy revue Chicago City Limits raises improvisational theatre to an art form. The Florida Vocal Arts Ensemble performs Jan. 30. Five FSU music faculty members perform folk song arrangements of Beethoven to New American works.

Tickets—$12 for adults, $8 for 18 and under, and $4 for CJC students—are available at the CJC Business Office.

For information, call the CJC Fine and Performing Arts Department at 718-2277.

CJC Workforce programs have openings

Several Workforce Development programs at Chipola Junior College currently have openings.

Most programs offer custom scheduling and self-paced learning which allow students to complete programs at their own pace. Financial aid and remedial assistance is provided for most programs. Certificate Programs include: Accounting Applications, Applied Welding, Automotive Service Technology, Commercial Food, Culinary Arts, Correctional Officer, Computer Electronics Technology, Electronics Technology, Emergency Medical Technician, Grooming & Salon Services, Law Enforcement, Combination Law Enforcement & Corrections, Office Specialist, Patient Care Assistant, and Telecommunications.

For information about any of these programs, call 718-2270.

“Thanks to You It’s Working”

We’ve all seen commercials for United Way with NFL players saying this familiar slogan.

This year, Chipola Junior College has joined the local United Way campaign.

United Way in our area gives your contributions to great causes like Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Habitat for Humanity. But your contributions also help people with real needs through donations to Hospice, Salvation Army, United Cerebral Palsy and various Children’s Homes and Domestic Violence Centers. You also may designate your United Way donation for any approved charitable organization.

The Chipola family is blessed with good jobs and good friends. Chipola’s goal is a modest $1,000. With 200-plus employees, that’s only about $5 a person. I know that some of you will want to give much more.

I urge you to join together in helping Chipola to reach this goal which will bring help to so many people in our community.

For more information, or to get a pledge card, contact Bryan Craven at Ext. 2264.

*Thanks to you, it’s working,
Dale O’Daniel*

Governor to hold office hours at Chipola

Governor Jeb Bush and Lt. Governor Frank Brogan will hold open office hours at Chipola Junior College in Marianna on Tuesday, Nov. 14, from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The office hours will allow residents in Jackson County and surrounding communities an opportunity to inform the Governor or Lt. Governor of concerns and issues important to them.

The Governor's open office hours have previously been held in Pensacola, Cape Coral, Palatka and Madison.

Registration for residents interested in a one-on-one, five-minute meeting with Governor Bush or Lt. Governor Brogan begins at 7:30 a.m. at the Chipola Public Service Building.

Staff members of the Governor's Citizens Services Office will also be available to offer additional assistance.

Workshop for Women set at Chipola

Chipola Junior College will offer a new series of women's health workshops beginning Tuesday, Nov. 7.

"Real Solutions: A Workshop for Real Women" is a six-session, interactive workshop based upon Jennifer Brodie's book, entitled Real Solutions for Real Women: A Common Sense Guide to Breaking the Cycle of Dieting Forever.

The goal of the workshop is to teach women how to identify and overcome the obstacles that prevent them from making healthful changes in their lives and to be proud of the bodies they inhabit. Any woman seeking an alternative to traditional diets and fitness programs that promise results, but consistently fail to deliver would benefit from attending the Real Solutions workshop.

The workshops will take place on Tuesday evenings from 7-8:30 p.m. beginning Nov. 7. The cost is $50 per person for the full six weeks, and space is limited to 20 people.

For information, call the CJC Continuing Education Office at 718-2395.

Graduation 2001 deadlines set

Prospective graduates of the 2000 fall semester or 2001 spring semester are reminded that application deadline for a diploma deadline is Dec. 1
