Boston Pops conductor opens CJC Artist Series

Boston Pops conductor Keith Lockhart, will perform at the Chipola Junior College Theater, Monday, Oct. 9, at 7 p.m.

Lockhart leaves music lovers across the nation entranced during his rousing appearances on PBS's "Evening at the Pops" and A & E's annual "Holiday at Pops" and "Pop Goes the Fourth" concerts. Lockhart devotes much of his spare time sharing his love for music with his younger fans. As conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra Youth Concerts, he leads 15 educational concerts a year for school children and their families. In his lively presentation, Why I Sing in the Shower, Lockhart discusses the rich history of music as well as his own dedication to making the classics accessible to everyone.

Lockhart is the first event in the 2000-01 Chipola Artist Series.

Three other performances are scheduled in the Series. The Chvatal/Kritzer Duo will perform Nov. 14. Soprano, Janet Chvatal, one of Europe's rising opera celebrities, (and star of the Phantom of the Opera) in Vienna, teams up with top classical guitarist, Scott Kritzer, in a program that will feature North and South American Folk Songs, exotic works from Spain, and beloved opera melodies including the famous "Habanera" from Carmen and Gershwin's "Summertime."

Chicago City Limits, comedy and improvisation, hits the CJC stage Jan. 8. New York's longest running comedy revue Chicago City Limits raises improvisational theatre to an art form.

The Florida Vocal Arts Ensemble, will perform Jan. 30. Comprised of five of FSU's music faculty members, the ensemble has quickly found a devoted audience in North Florida. Their delightful, entertaining concerts perform folk song arrangements of Beethoven to New American works.

Season tickets—$40 for all four events—are available in the CJC Fine Arts Department. Individual event tickets will be available two weeks prior to each performance at the CJC Business Office. Event tickets are $12 for adults, $8—for 18 and under, and $4 for CJC students.

For season tickets, call the CJC Fine and Performing Arts Department at 718-2277.

Tallahassee Democrat writer to speak at Chipola

Mark Hinson, staff arts writer and columnist for the Tallahassee Democrat, will deliver a lecture on writing and journalism, Friday, Sept. 29 at 10 a.m., in Jackson Hall of the Literature/Language Building.

Hinson covers entertainment as well as more offbeat subjects — the world's largest piece of cheese, for example. A native of Marianna, Mark grew up in a pecan orchard with his three brothers, one of whom is Richard Hinson, a CJC English instructor.

Mark is a 1979 graduate of Chipola. He also worked for the Alligator at the University of Florida and for the Times-Picayune in New Orleans.

His unique brand of humor and his astounding knowledge of music, film and popular culture, has made his columns a favorite among the 100,000-plus readers of the Tallahassee Democrat.

The public is invited to attend Hinson's talk.

Real women workshop set at CJC

Workshops for Real Women, a six-session, interactive workshop is set to begin Tuesday, Sept. 26 at Chipola Junior College

Based on Jennifer Brodie's book, entitled Real Solutions for Real Women: A Common Sense Guide to Breaking the Cycle of Dieting Forever. Brodie, a native New Yorker, lives in Marianna.

The goal of the workshop is to teach women how to identify and overcome the obstacles that prevent them from making healthful changes in their lives and to be proud of the bodies they inhabit. Any woman seeking an alternative to traditional diets and fitness programs that promise results, but consistently fail to deliver would benefit from attending the Real Solutions workshop.

The workshops will take place on Tuesday evenings from 7-8:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 26. The cost is $50 per person for the full six weeks, and space is limited to 20 people.

For information, call the CJC Continuing Education Office at 718-2395.

Customer Support Center training courses set at CJC

Chipola Junior College is offering three new courses for those interested in Customer Support Center Training.

The courses are CGS 1060-Introduction to Microcomputer Use; CET 1171-Introduction to Microcomputer Maintenance and Repair; and MNA 1161-Customer Service Training.

Classes will run Oct. 23 through Dec. 9. Courses will be taught in six-week cycles and will be offered mornings, afternoons, evenings and Saturdays in three-hour blocks.

The three courses are part of the AS Degree in Computer Information Technology. CJC dean of Workforce Development Bud Riviere says, "Completing the courses in no way guarantees employment at Sykes Enterprises; however, completing the course-work and the AS Degree would certainly enable someone to become employable in the Customer Support Center area."

Gary Cook is the CJC counselor for students interested in Customer Support Center training. Ken Griffin will serve as the One Stop Center contact for the program. Angie Tyler will direct TABE testing for the program through the CJC Success Center.

Prospective students should complete a CJC application immediately in preparation for classes beginning in October. Call Gary Cook at 718-2397.

For more information, call Chipola's 24-hour Customer Support Center program line at (850) 718-2480.

CJC Workforce programs have openings

Several Workforce Development programs at Chipola Junior College currently have openings.

Most programs offer custom scheduling and self-paced learning which allow students to complete programs at their own pace. Financial aid and remedial assistance is provided for most programs. Certificate Programs include: Accounting Applications, Applied Welding, Automotive Service Technology, Commercial Food, Culinary Arts, Correctional Officer, Computer Electronics Technology, Electronics Technology, Emergency Medical Technician, Grooming & Salon Services, Law Enforcement, Combination Law Enforcement &

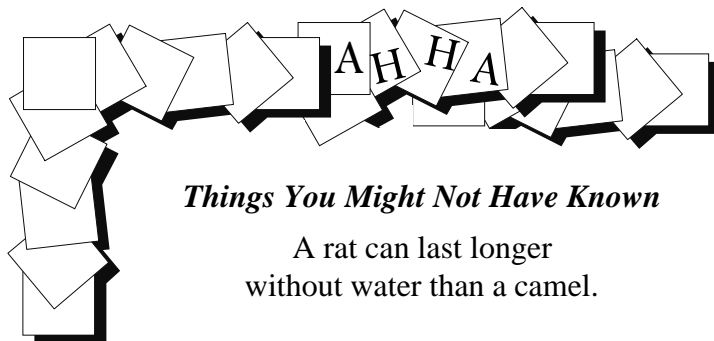

Corrections, Office Specialist, Patient Care Assistant, Practical Nursing, and Telecommunications. Chipola also is offering three courses in Customer Support Center Training beginning Oct. 23 and running through Dec. 9. The six-week courses will be offered mornings, afternoons, evenings and Saturdays in three-hour blocks. Completion of the courses enables students to become employable in Customer Support Service, however, in no way guarantee employment at Sykes Enterprises.

For information about any of these programs, call 718-2270.

THIS WEEK

"Chipola This Week" is a weekly publication of the CJC PR Office.

Deadline for our next issue is noon, Wednesday, Sept. 27. Articles will be printed as space permits. Call ext. 2265, or e-mail Evelyn Ward.
