Chipola honors Valedictorians at reception

Chipola Junior College honored 34 students attending Chipola this year on Valedictorian Scholarships at an Aug. 30 reception at the college.

The group represents valedictorians and salutatorians from all 15 public high schools in Chipola's five-county district.

CJC president, Dr. Dale O'Daniel, says, "These students are the best of the best. They have worked hard to distinguish themselves among their classmates." He pointed out that many of the students also are Florida Academic Scholars—students with a minimum 3.5 GPA and 28 ACT score. The president says, "Florida Academic Scholars can choose any college in the state of Florida. We are very proud that they chose to attend Chipola."

The Valedictorian Scholarships are paid for by an endowment in the CJC Foundation bequeathed by the late Maynard and Edna Fink of Blountstown.

CJC Freshmen on Valedictorian scholarships, include: Samantha Williams, Altha Public School; Pam Williams, Bethlehem High; Nicholas Barth, Blountstown High; Derek Blount, April Day and Renae Leavins, Chipley High; Michael Shores, Cottondale High; Megan Reece and Stephanie Crisp, Graceville High; Leah Moneyham, Grand Ridge High; Brian Parker, Holmes County High; Monica Bontrager, Liberty County High; Jeremy Calloway, Malone High; Dana Stripling and Bethany Wester, Marianna High; Casey Stafford, Ponce de Leon High; Samantha Johnson, Poplar Springs High; Holli Crawford, Sneads High; Rebecca Purvis, Vernon High.

Marianna, Barbara Hughes of Marianna, Maria McKinnie of Marianna, Kim-Marie Reeves of Marianna, William Summerlin of Telogia, Cloyce Thrush of Marianna, and Bonnie Williams of Marianna.

Basic Corrections course set at Chipola

Anyone interested in training for employment as correctional officer should contact Chipola Junior College immediately.

A Basic Corrections course originally scheduled for Aug. 22, has been rescheduled to begin Sept. 18.

Application deadline is Sept. 13. Applicants must be at least 19 years of age, be of good moral character and possess a valid driver's license. Applicants also must earn a passing score on the Test of Adult Basic Education (TABE) and meet FDLE requirements.

For information, call (850) 718-2394.

Enroll now in Culinary program at CJC

Chipola Junior College has immediate openings in the Culinary Management Associate in Science Degree program and in the Certificate Program in Commercial Foods.

The AS degree program prepares students for careers in commercial and institutional management positions leading to employment as executive chef, steward, food and beverage director, restaurant manager or caterer. The program will also provide supplemental training for persons employed in culinary occupations. Culinary management focuses on broad, transferable skills and stresses understanding and demonstration of the following elements of the culinary industry: planning; management; finance; technical and product skills; technology; labor issues; health; safety and environmental issues.

A Certificate of Completion in the Culinary Management will allow the student to enter this profession with excellent skills and competencies in the food service industry. The certificate program option provides students the opportunity to complete the program without having to take the academic courses which are part of the A. S. Degree program.

New instructor Chef Mark Panichella, a Certified Executive Chef, will lead the program. Students will learn in a newly-renovated cafeteria with state of the art equipment. Through a partnership with Morrison's Food Service, Jackson Hospital and the CJC Cafeteria, students will gain valuable experience and great placement potential. For more information, call the CJC Workforce Development office at 718-2270.

Cross and Baumann earn degrees

Ryan Cross, CJC athletic director and head men's basketball coach recently earned a master's degree from the Fort Hays State University. Assistant men's basketball coach Kris Baumann earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Idaho.

Dr. Dale O'Daniel has pledged a $500 bonus for CJC administrative and career service employees who earn a bachelor's or advanced degree.

SGA announces fall elections Sept. 6 and 7

SGA Fall Elections will be held Sept. 6 and 7. The positions open are: SGA Vice President, Freshman Class President, Freshman Class Vice President, Freshman Senator, Sophomore Class Vice President.

Students may vote for their favorite candidate in front of buildings C & D from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and get a free snow cone just for voting.

September 7 students may vote in the Student Activities Office, Building K Rm. 803.
