Chipola shines at State FACC Convention

Chipola was one of the most talked-about colleges at the Florida Association of Community Colleges Annual Convention, Nov. 3-6, at the Sheraton World Resort in Orlando.

The highlight of the convention for Chipola was the installation of Joyce Traynom as state FACC president for the year 2000. Traynom is executive assistant to the president at Chipola. She also was honored as the 1999 Outstanding Board Member and the Outstanding Member for Region I.

The Chipola chapter of FACC garnered numerous awards this year including the 1999 Region I Chapter of the Year. The chapter's Decade Arcade Booth, under the creative direction of Margie Williams, CJC continuing education director, was awarded First Place for booth design and greatest number of visitors.

CJC president Dr. Dale O'Daniel was awarded an Honorary Life Membership Award for his contribution to the FACC organization. O'Daniel served as state president of FACC in 1998, and was successful in bringing the convention to the Panhandle for the first time in FACC's history.

Ebony Embers to perform at CJC Thursday

"Of Ebony Embers," subtitled "Vignettes of the Harlem Renaissance," will be performed on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 9:00 and 10:00 a.m., at the Chipola Junior College Theatre.

The Core Ensemble, with actor Akin Babatunde, will perform this new musical theatre piece which celebrates the music and poetry of African Americans in New York City during the 1920's. The 50-minute show explores the life and times of African Americans who helped shape the Harlem Renaissance. The performance examines the lives of three outstanding but very different African American poets—Langston Hughes, Countee Cullen and Claude McKay—as seen through the eyes of the great painter and muralist Aaron Douglas. The characters will be interpreted by Babatunde, who is nationally known for his regular appearances on Public

Also attending the convention from Chipola, were: Rachel Coeey, Nora Mayo, Donna Neel, Lou Kind, Alice Pendergrass, Kim Collins, Peggy Register, Gene Prough, Carolyn Poole and CJC trustees Jeff Crawford, Brenda Taylor and Manuel Gatlin.

FACC is a statewide organization open to all employees, retirees and trustees of Florida's 28 public community colleges. FACC provides professional development opportunities for its members, and represents the interests of community colleges before the Florida Legislature.

Television's children's show Wishbone. The Dallas Observer noted that "Babatunde's characters step forward and tell the story. His moments onstage are affecting, demonstrating the most powerful special effects—the human heart and soul."

The Core Ensemble—cello, piano, and percussion—performs music by African American composers ranging from jazz greats Duke Ellington, Thelonious Monk and Charles Mingus to concert music composers Jeffrey Mumford and George Walker.

The free performance is sponsored the Chipola Fine and Performing Arts Department and by a grant from the State of Florida Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs.

For information about "Of Ebony Embers," call (850) 718-2301.

Mark Twain to visit Chipola on Monday

Mark Twain, humorist, riverboat pilot and author will come to life in a presentation at Chipola on Monday, Nov. 15, at 11 a.m.

Twain will be portrayed by George Frein, recently retired University of North Dakota Professor Emeritus of Philosophy and Religion. He is director of the National Chautauqua Tour, a group of humanities scholars who offer programs of historical characterization nationwide. Frein will share the works of Twain and then open a discussion for audience questions. Participants will also have the opportunity to talk with the scholar when he steps out of character to discuss his ideas on this important historical figure.

Chautauqua (shuh-taw-kwa) began in 1874 on the banks of Lake Chautauqua in up-state New York and has developed into a thoughtful, educational, entertaining event.

Developed by the National Chautauqua

Tour, the American Humorist Series debuted in the summer of 1998 in the Great Plains. The Florida tour was organized by the Florida Humanities Council and comes to Chipola through the generosity of several groups. Through a grant from Chipola's Staff and Program Development Committee, the CJC performances are free and open to the public.

Chipola's Chautauqua also will feature the characters of Will Rogers, January 31; Langston Hughes, March 27; and James Thurber, April 17.

The Chipola program is a joint presentation of the Florida Humanities Council (FHC) and Chipola Junior College. FHC is a non-profit organization funded by private donations, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and Florida's Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs.

For information about the program, call Joan Stadskev at (850) 718-2301.

Best Western Hoops Classic is Nov. 19 and 20

There will be enough basketball teams in Marianna to fill up a hotel when Chipola hosts the Best Western Panhandle Classic on Nov. 19 and 20 in the Johnson Center.

The action begins Friday, Nov. 19 at Noon with Okaloosa Walton taking on Polk. At 2 p.m., Pensacola plays Alabama Southern. Gulf Coast meets Daytona at 4 p.m. Tallahassee plays Palm Beach at 6 p.m. Chipola faces L.B. Wallace in the nightcap at 8 p.m.

Games continue Saturday, Nov. 20, at 10 a.m. with Chipola's women playing the L.B. Wallace women. OW plays Palm Beach at 12 Noon. Pensacola meets Polk at 2 p.m. Gulf Coast takes on L.B. Wallace at 4 p.m. Tallahassee meets Daytona at 6 p.m. Chipola's men play Alabama Southern in the feature game at 8 p.m.

Both Chipola teams opened the home season Nov. 12 and 13 with the Chipola Classic. The Indians were scheduled to play FCCJ and Central Florida. The Lady Indians were set to play Darton and Daytona.

The Indians jumped out to a perfect 3-0 start under their new leader who was national JUCO coach of the year last season at Barton (KS). Chipola scored an 80-74 win over FCCJ, and beat Chattanooga State (98-91) and Miami Dade (93-74).

Cross says he likes the way his team has come together in the first three games of the season. "I think we've done a good job of controlling the tempo. We're learning how we need to play as a team in order to win." There is concern that the Indians lack depth, but the coach says, "This is one of the best teams that I've been around as far as a team that plays together. Our first seven players have really stepped up and done some good things. I think we'll keep getting better and better."

Janerio Spurlock, a 6'6 freshman, has been the key to Chipola's offensive attack. He's led the team in scoring with 81 points in the first three games. Cross says, "I knew he was going to be a point producer. We needed a wing, and I think he's going to play consistently all year.

Sophomore Will Campbell has also been impressive in the early games with 56 total points and a whopping 58 rebounds. "He's been the inside presence that we needed," said Cross.
