Scholars of London to play Chipola Monday

The Scholars of London, a classical cappella vocal quartet, will perform at the CJC Theater on Monday, Oct. 11, at 7 p.m.

Hailed as one of the world's musical treasures, The Scholars offer sparkling and entertaining performances of music spanning five centuries. But the show is not music alone, the British quartet is known for their comedic flair. In fact the Albany (NY) Times Union reported that "Chevy Chase would not be out of place as a Scholar, if he had the voice."

The British unaccompanied quartet has given at least 2,500 concerts in more than 50 countries since their debut in 1970, a record which can be rivaled by very few ensembles in the field of chamber music.

They have performed in many of the world's most famous concert halls, from New York's Lincoln Center, London's Royal Festival Hall and the Sydney Opera House to smaller, more intimate venues such as Wigmore Hall in London and the Brahmsaal in Vienna. Their sparkling performances, enlivened by humorous commentary, are acclaimed by critics and audiences alike.

The name "Scholars" derives from the fact that the original members of the group all won

Smith named CJC Faculty/Administrator of the Month

Bonnie Smith of Chipley has been named Chipola's Faculty/Administrator of the Month for October.

Smith has worked at Chipola since 1986, and currently is a Math instructor in the Math, Natural & Social Science Division.

She also serves as Chairman of the SPD Committee as well as coordinator for the sophomore honors program.

Smith's supervisor Dr. Rene Tharpe says, "Bonnie is an energetic and creative instructor. Our department is very pleased to see Bonnie, a proven faculty leader, recognized as an outstanding faculty member."

Bonnie's husband, Robert, is a Coach at Kate Smith Elementary in Chipley. The Smiths have three children, Kevin, Michael, and Ryan.

The Employee of the Month Award recognizes the exceptional work of CJC faculty and administrators. Candidates are nominated by their colleagues for exhibiting professionalism, motivation, reliability, and courtesy. Monthly winners receive a plaque, reserved parking, and a $300 bonus.

Molineux's work featured on commercial recording

A musical composition by Dr. Allen Molineux, director of instrumental music at Chipola, has been recorded for commercial release.

Molineux's "Free Fancy for Solo Flute" was released on a Capstone Records CD by flutist, Grzegorz Olkiewicz. The album, entitled "Night Thoughts and Fancies," features selections by eight American composers whose works explore the title's concept. The president of Capstone Records, Richard Brooks, conceived the album, then made a nation-wide "call for scores." From all the works submitted, Molineux's was among the eight pieces chosen for the recording project.

Since 1971, Molineux has published eleven original compositions. In addition, he has received numerous commissions including one from the Florida Music Teachers Association.

Molineux joined the Chipola music faculty in 1988. He teaches instrumental music and music theory, and directs the Chipola Rock and Jazz Ensemble. He previously taught instrumental music, theory, and composition at Barton College, and has taught music in public schools in Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Molineux earned a Bachelor's Degree from DePauw University, a Master's Degree from the Eastman School of Music at the University of Rochester and a Doctorate from Florida State University.

scholarships to Cambridge University to sing in the famous choir of King's College Chapel. Thus the Scholars of London began as an all-male ensemble, but as early as 1972 the group changed to include a female voice, adding a new dimension to both sound and repertoire. David van Asch and Robin Doveton are both founding members while Kym Amps and Angus Davidson joined the group in 1983 and 1986 respectively.

The performance is the second of four offerings in the Chipola Artist Series. On Feb. 28, the British duo Double Exposure, will perform Baroque, classical, and romantic masterpieces. The series ends with a classic of American literature "To Kill a Mockingbird" on March 30.

A few tickets may be available at the door prior to the performance at $12 for adults and $8 for ages 18 and under. Visit or call the Chipola Book Store at 718-2258.

SIFE participates in national Make a Difference Day

Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE), in cooperation with SGA and other campus organizations, is sponsoring a campus-wide Food Drive from Oct. 11 to 23.

We are ask for your support in creating awareness for community, students, and staff to participate in this project and thereby become a participant in the national MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY.

Our objective is to involve students and community in "making a difference" by filling the food bank of an organization which help the less fortunate—The Family Stopover House.

SIFE invites everyone to get involved in this community service. Please deposit your nonperishable food donations in collection boxes around campus or deliver to SGA or L404C. SIFE will deliver the donations to Stopover on Oct. 23.

For information, contact Kathryn Roberts at Ext. 3269 or Angela Spangler, at Ext. 3314.

Madrigal dinners slated at Chipola

The CJC Department of Fine and Performing Arts will present the popular Christmas Madrigal Dinners on Dec. 2 and 3 in the Arts Center.

CJC's Chamber Chorus and Show Choir will combine their talents to become the Madrigal Singers. The Madrigal Singers, Wind Ensemble, Guitar Ensemble and Theatre Department will present the program under the direction of Dr. Edward Smith Lyon. In addition to a delicious medieval dinner, the program will include the procession of singers through the hall, the hoisting of a sparkling toast from the wassail bowl, the procession of litter bearers with the boar's head, a Royal Court, a jester and strolling minstrels. The evening will conclude with a concert by the Madrigal Singers.

Odd Couple coming together at CJC

New CJC Theatre Coordinator Charles Sirmon says rehearsals are going well for the upcoming fall production of Neil Simon's "The Odd Couple."

Television fans may remember "The Odd Couple" from the long running comedy series which featured Jack Klugman as Oscar and Tony Randall as Felix Unger. The series was based on the hit Broadway play set to open, Nov. 4.

In the CJC performance, the title roles of Felix and Oscar will be Jaromy Henry of Donalsonville, GA, as the neat freak Felix, and Matt Lero of Dothan, AL, as the messy Oscar. The zany poker players will be portrayed by Terry Whitaker of Iron City, GA as Roy; Rusty Miller of Ponce De Leon as Vinny; Chris Bishop of Cottondale as Speed; and Josh Smith of Dothan, AL as the cop, Murry. The Pigeon sisters will be played by Casi Parmer of Sneads and Jessica Dean of Marianna.

This hit comedy will be presented Nov. 4 through 6 at 7:30 p.m., and Nov. 7 at 2 p.m. in the CJC Theatre. Tickets will be available at the CJC bookstore. CJC students and employees get one free ticket with their college ID.

For information, call 718-2277.

FLORIDA'S COMMUNITY COLLEGES

PUTTING MINDS TO WORK

There are three times as many students enrolled in Florida's Community Colleges as in all of Florida's universities combined. Which is a good thing, considering eight out of ten jobs in the next century won't require a bachelor's degree. Those jobs will require technical skills, the kind that Florida's community colleges deliver. It's why companies like Cisco Systems, Microsoft, Oracle, and Novell turn to our network of 28 colleges when they need customized training for their workforce. It's why you should too.
