Homecoming Week at Chipola

Chipola Junior College will celebrate Homecoming 2002 Feb. 18–23. "The Boat Stops Here," this year's Homecoming theme, describes what CJC fans hope their Indians will do to arch rival Gulf Coast in the big Homecoming games on Feb. 23.

Student activities for the week include:

Monday, Feb. 18: Pajama Day – Students are asked to wear their favorite pj's. A Building Decoration Contest between CJC clubs will be judged. Monday is the deadline for students to register in the Student Activities office to be a contestant in the Homecoming Talent Show.

Tuesday, Feb. 19: High School Spirit Day – Students are asked to wear high school colors.

Wednesday, Feb. 20: Mardi Gras Day – Bring the spirit of the annual New Orleans celebration to Chipola by wearing beads and tacky garb. A Talent Show will be held at 10 a.m. in the Arts Center. All CJC students are invited to share their talents of four minutes or less. Cash prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Thursday, Feb. 21: Camouflage Day

– Students are asked to wear camo gear.

Friday, Feb. 22: Blue and Gold/War Paint Day

– Students are asked to show their Indian spirit by wearing school colors. A Student vs. Faculty Basketball game is set for 10 a.m. in the Johnson Health Center. Students should sign up in the Student Activities office.

Saturday, Feb. 23: Homecoming Night begins with conference games pitting the Indians against the Commodores of Gulf Coast. Tip-off for the women's game is 5:30 p.m. An Alumni Reception begins at 6 p.m. in the Chipola Appreciation Club Room. CJC President Dr. Dale O'Daniel and his wife, Judith, invite all alumni and friends to attend the free reception, sponsored in part by the Chipola Chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges. The men's game begins at 7:30 p.m. CJC's 2002 Homecoming Queen and Mr. Chipola will be crowned during halftime. A student Homecoming Dance will be held in the cafeteria immediately following the game.

Chipola's 2002 Homecoming Court includes: freshman Homecoming attendants: Beth Harris of Graceville, Marcy Murdock of Malone and Charyl Tyus of Sneads; sophomore Homecoming candidates: Holli Lynn Daffin of Cottondale, Karen Gwaltney of Marianna and Leah Nicole Moneyham of Grand Ridge; freshman Mr. Chipola attendants: Mason Mayo of Blountstown, Brian Mitchell of Marianna and John Jacob Thompson of Marianna; sophomore Mr. Chipola candidates: Charlie Alexander of Sneads, Nicholas Barth of Blountstown and Bruce Smith of Two Egg. Chipola's 2002 Homecoming Queen and Mr. Chipola will be selected from the sophomores.

For more information on any of these Homecoming events, call the SGA office at 718-2308 or 718-2314.

Early sellout expected for Chipola's Footloose

Tickets for the Chipola Junior College production of Footloose go on sale Feb. 20 in the CJC Business Office.

The musical's five-day run begins March 6, and Chipola Theater Director Charles Sirmon encourages everyone to get their tickets early, as all 350 seats are expected to sell out for each performance. Sirmon says this is the largest scale musical that he has produced during his three years at CJC.

Chipola is one of the first colleges to produce a stage version of the hit movie. Footloose performances on Broadway began about four years ago and after two and a half years, the rights became available off-Broadway.

Tickets are $7 for adults, $5 for students and free to CJC students and employees.

For CJC Theater information, contact Charles Sirmon at (850) 718-2227.

Singers invited to join CJC Chorus for Haydn's "Creation"

The CJC Chamber Chorus invites community singers to perform in an upcoming presentation of Franz Joseph Haydn's "The Creation."

The concert will be presented Thursday, April 4 at 7 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Marianna. Rehearsals have begun and are scheduled on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday mornings at 10 a.m. in Room 108 of the McLendon Fine Arts Building. An evening rehearsal is scheduled for Monday, March 25 from 7 to 10 p.m. in Room 120 of the McLendon Building. Two dress rehearsals are set for April 1 and 2 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Ed Lyon, the director, said, "The chorus is open to community members who might wish to participate. It is not necessary to attend all rehearsals, but chorus members are encouraged to attend as many as possible." Scores are available for purchase at $4 each.

Prospective chorus members should call Dr. Lyon at 718-2221 to indicate their interest and to get a copy of the rehearsal schedule.

Chipola hoops squads to finish regular season this week

Both Chipola basketball teams wind up the regular season this week with Homecoming on Feb. 23.

On Saturday, Feb. 16, Chipola takes on Okaloosa-Walton in a pair of conference games. Feb. 16 is dubbed Washington County Appreciation Night as CJC president Dr. Dale O'Daniel has invited all residents of Washington County to attend both games free of charge.

The Lady Indians host North Florida Monday, Feb. 18, at 5:30 p.m. The game was originally scheduled for Feb. 19. Chipola will celebrate Homecoming 2002 on Feb. 23 when they host arch-rival Gulf Coast.

The Indians fell to 17-10 on the season with a 62-61 loss on the road in Tallahassee. Head coach Ryan Cross said, "It was a hard fought game. We had several chances but missed too many free throws." CJC shot 16 of 30 free throws.

The Indians scored a big 99-72 win at Gulf Coast, Saturday, Feb. 9. Brandon Freeman led Chipola with a conference-high, 30 points. Wayne Bransom had 20. John Andrews scored 18. Kareem Johnson had 14. Michael Wilds scored 11 in his first start of the season.

With a week remaining in men's league play, OW (7-2) is in first place. TCC is (6-3). PJC is (5-3). CJC is (3-6). Gulf Coast is (1-8).

The Lady Indians slipped to 12-14 and 3-8 in the conference with a 68-53 loss at TCC. Leading scorers for CJC were Rebecca Montz with 14 and Lanita Carter with 12.

Gulf Coast (12-0) leads the women's conference race. OW (8-3) is second. PJC and (6-6) is in third. TCC is (5-6). CJC is 3-8. NFL is (1-11). The top two teams men's and women's teams in the league earn a trip to the State Tournament set for March 6-9 at Chipola.

For the latest scores, call 718-2CJC.

Chipola baseball/softball teams off to great starts

The Chipola Indians baseball team improved to 10-2 with a 12-4 win over Wallace College, Wednesday, Feb. 13 in Dothan.

The Indians swept a doubleheader from South Georgia College on Tuesday, Feb. 12. Chipola blanked SG 4-0 in game one. CJC's leading hitter was Russell Martin, who was 2 for 4 with a 2-run homerun. Ricardo Nanita was 2 for 3 with a solo homer.

Starting pitcher Les Hassen (1-0) got his first start of the season. He went 5 innings and allowed 5 hits, gave up no walks and no runs and struck out 9. Adam Dunavant went the last 2 innings. He gave up 1 hit, 1 walk and struck out 4.

Chipola blasted South Georgia 9-0 in game two. Leading hitter was Chad Farr, who was 2 for 3. Blake Balkcom and Luke Johnson both smacked 2-run homeruns.

Troy Fry (2-0) got his first start of the season. He gave up 5 hits, no runs and no walks and struck out 9 in five innings. Chad Coffee came in the 7th for one inning to strike out 2 and give up 1 hit. Randy Rolph struck out two in the last inning.

The Indians host Lake City, Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 4 p.m. and then play 11 games on the road from Feb. 23 through March 3. The Indians begin their defense of the Panhandle Conference title on March 15 when they host Tallahassee at 5 p.m.

The Lady Indians softball team improved to 4-2 after sweeping a doubleheader from Alabama Southern on Feb. 11.

CJC blanked AS 10-0 in game one. Jessica Finch was the winning pitcher. She struck out five and gave up one hit in four innings. Amanda Edwards got the save, allowing 2 hits and striking out 1 in 1 inning.

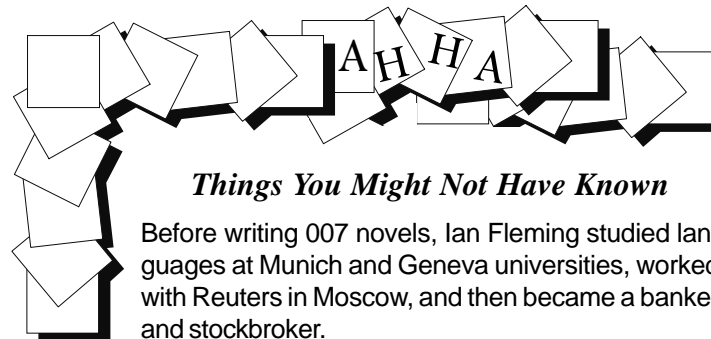

Chipola won game two 8-0. Stevie Gray pitched a no hitter, striking out 2 in 5 innings of play. CJC chalked up 18 hits in two games.

The Lady Indians are on the road until March 4 when they host Wabash CC at 4 p.m.
