THANKS CJC!

Thanks to you, Chipola surpassed last year's United Way goal with $1,758 in annual pledges.

United Way gifts stay at home to help people in your county. You may designate Calhoun, Jackson or Washington county in this campaign. You also may designate your UW gift to any approved charity.

Please send me your one time gift, or sign up for payroll deduction in Human Resources. You can choose payroll deduction for as little as $1 a month. Thanks to you it's working

FSU-PC OFFERINGS

Beginning Fall 2002, the FSU-Panama City College of Business will no longer offer the undergraduate major in Management. Instead, FSU PC will offer a major in Business Administration and will continue to offer Accounting.

Students and staff who have questions should contact Dr. Joe Icerman at (850) 644-3090 or jicerma@cob.fsu.edu.

REPS ON CAMPUS

Dana Zapata, Coordinator for Community College Relations and Graduate Affairs from the FSU main campus, will be in the lobby of the Social Science Building to talk with students on Thursday, Jan. 10, from 9 a.m. until noon.

Susan Shiver, from the Food & Resource Economics Program in the College of Agricultural & Life Sciences at the University of Florida, will be in Building C on Thursday, Jan. 31, from 9 a.m. until noon.

Late Registration continues at CJC

Spring classes at Chipola Junior College began Jan. 4, but late registration will continue through Noon on Jan. 10.

Chipola offers college credit courses leading to the Associate in Arts (AA) degree which guarantees acceptance to Florida's public universities. Courses are offered during the day and evening, and also through independent study. Chipola also offers several Associate in Science (AS) programs, as well as a number of Workforce Development programs which provide training for high wage jobs.

New students must complete an application and provide high school or college transcripts. Financial aid is available to those who qualify.

The University Center @ Chipola provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor's and advanced degrees on the CJC campus. Most university programs begin Jan. 7.

For more information, call the CJC Registration Office at 718-2211, or visit Chipola on the web at www.chipola.cc.fl.us

Chipola hosts Milton H. Johnson Classic

The Indians host the Milton H. Johnson Classic, Jan. 4-5, in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. The classic begins Friday, Jan. 4 with Okaloosa-Walton and Rockingham at 5:30 p.m. Chipola takes on Cayuga at 7:30 p.m.

On Saturday, Jan. 5, Okaloosa-Walton plays Cayuga at 5:30, followed by Chipola vs. Rockingham at 7:30.

The Indians are 12-4 after finishing second in the Dixie Invitational in St. George, Utah, Dec. 27-29. Chipola outlasted second-ranked Barton County (Kansas) 72-71 in the first round of the tourney. Brandon Freeman, Wayne Bransom and Kareem Johnson each scored 13. Chipola head coach Ryan Cross was head coach at Barton in 1999.

Chipola beat Globe Institute (NY) 97-82 in the second of the tourney. Freeman led with 25 points and 11 rebounds. Johnson had 17 points and 10 rebounds. John Andrews scored 16. Michael Wilds scored 15 and pulled in 8 rebounds.

The Indians suffered a 71-63 loss to tournament host Dixie State College in the championship game. Freeman scored 20. Andrews scored 18. Johnson pulled in 15 rebounds.

Head coach Ryan Cross says, "We played well against three of the toughest teams we've seen this year. Barton County was probably better than anyone in our league." Chipola is currently ranked third in the state poll.

Brandon Freeman leads Chipola's offense and is currently the leading scorer in the Panhandle conference with 18.5 points per game. He also leads the state in three-point field goals with 49. Wayne Bransom is the second best rebounder in the conference, averaging 10.8 rebounds and 9.7 points per game. Kareem Johnson is averaging 11.3 points and 10.1 rebounds per game, placing him third in the league rebounding race. John Andrews is averaging 12.7 points. David Hilton is averaging 7.8 points and is second in the conference in assists with 5.3 games. Dominique Townes is averaging 8.1 points per game.

The CJC women's basketball team improved to 9-6 with a big 74-50 win over Olney College in the New Year Classic at Gulf Coast on Dec. 30.

Satoya Spates is the the Lady Indians' leading scorer, averaging 16.8 points. She also leads the team in rebounds with a 6.8 average. Tamecca Barnes leads the team in assists with 4.8 per game, and in steals with a 5.7 average.

Both CJC teams open the conference season Jan. 9 at Tallahassee.

For the latest scores, call 718-2CJC.

Andean Music Show set at CJC

Tickets will be available at the door for Alborada, The Batista Family Andean Show, that hits the Chipola Junior College stage Wednesday, Jan. 9, at 7 p.m., as part of the Chipola Artist Series.

No advance tickets will be sold for the event. The box office opens at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $12 for adults; $8 for ages 18 and under; $4 for CJC students.

Alborada, which means “first light of the morning,” signals the beginning of a new day for the Batista family as they bring their music to the world. Led by Milo Batista, Alborada performs a diverse program of Andean folk music, bringing centuries of cultural history to concert stages. Batista has played in concert halls throughout the U.S., including Carnegie Hall and Lincoln Center. His family band has delighted audiences with their musical expertise and lively sense of humor.

Batista was a popular entertainer for 15 years and was a musical director of Khenany before forming Alborada. Natives of Ciudad Obregon, Sonora, Mexico, the family performs the folk music of Central and South America. The five member group has entertained audiences worldwide with their unique blend of authentic Andean music, classical arrangements, and popular tunes. The band include’s Milo Batista—his wife Lodes, son Paul, daughter Jhoanna and nephew Jose Serrano.

The concert will include a diverse selection of traditional Andean music plus an exciting international repertoire. Batista’s background includes a lifetime career as a teacher of traditional music and instruments as well as the European classics. He is a virtuoso on the Andean flutes and has mastered many folk instruments and styles. Selections of his work were used in the soundtrack for a National Geographic Society production.

The final offering of the Artist Series, Dancing on Common Ground, set for Feb. 7, will feature Irish step-dancers, country cloggers and American tap-dancers.

For ticket information, call 718-2220.
