Chipola athletic programs celebrate successful year

Chipola Junior College's athletic programs achieved much success during the 2001-2002 school year.

The CJC baseball team set the curve for Chipola's four athletic programs with a Runner-up finish in the FCCAA / NJCAA Region VIII tournament, a 46-10 record, and a second Panhandle Conference Championship in as many years. The Indians were ranked as high as third in the country for much of the season. Head coach Jeff Johnson was named Panhandle Conference Coach-of-the-Year for the second year in a row.

Several baseballers were among the best in the state and nation. Blake Balkcom was named to the NJCAA All District Team. Three Indians were named to the FCCAA All Tournament Team: Balkcom, Ivan Naccarata and Kyle Pawelczyk.

Three CJC players made the FCCAA All State squad: Balkcom, Ricardo Nanita and Naccarata.

The All Panhandle Conference team listed eight CJC players: Balkcom, Nanita, Naccarata, Pawelczyk, Russell Martin, Victor Alvarez, Troy Fry and Scott Wearne. Russell Martin was named to the Academic All Conference team and the state FCCAA All Academic Team.

Chipola's men's basketball team had a very successful season with an 18-12 record. All Panhandle Conference picks from Chipola include: Kareem Johnson, John Andrews and Brandon Freeman. Michael Wilds was named to the Panhandle Conference All Freshman Team.

Brandon Freeman and David Hilton were named to the Panhandle Academic All Conference team.

The Lady Indians softball squad finished the year with a 26-18 record. All Panhandle Conference picks included: Neikole Royster, Jill Foye, Virginia Spencer and Stephanie Gray.

Elisha Scott and Virginia Spencer were named to both the FCCAA All Academic Team and the Academic All Conference team. The Lady Indians basketball team finished the season with 14-16 record.

Rebecca Montz was named to the All Panhandle Conference Team. Amber Bryant and Lanita Carter made the Panhandle Conference All Freshman Team. D'Leisha Cockerham and Rebecca Montz were named to both the FCCAA All Academic Team and to the Academic All Conference Team. Clouttia Young also made the Academic All Conference Team.

Chipola baseball players picked in major league draft

Several players from the Chipola Junior College baseball team that finished second in the state tournament were picked in the Major League draft on June 6.

Sophomore pitcher Kyle Pawelczyk of Elkins, West Virginia, was drafted in the 3rd round by the Anaheim Angels. The left-hander amassed a 6-1 record during his sophomore season. He threw 70 strikeouts in 67 innings with a 2.14 ERA. One of the Indians' top starters for two years, he signed a scholarship with LSU earlier this season.

Freshman Kellen Ludwig of Leesburg, GA, was drafted in the 12th round by the San Francisco Giants. Though his record was 1-1, he threw 40 strikeouts in 28 critical innings, making him one of the Indians top closers.

Freshman Tony Mandel of Pensacola was drafted in the 17th round by the Anaheim Angels. He had a stellar 6-0 season on the mound for the Indians including a complete game against Manatee in the state tourney. He threw 52 strikeouts in 64 innings.

Sophomore third baseman Russell Martin of Montreal, Canada, was picked in the 17th by the Los Angeles Dodgers. The former member of the Canadian National team hit .324 with 18 doubles, 4 homeruns and 42 RBI's. He signed a scholarship with NC State earlier this year.

Sophomore second baseman Ivan Naccarata of Laval Quebec, Canada, was picked in the 21st round by the Houston Astros. Also a member of the Canadian National team, Naccarata hit .365 with 16 homeruns and 56 RBI's.

Freshman Victor Alvarez of Valencia, Venezuela, was picked in the 37th round by the Colorado Rockies. He hit .316 on the season.

Ricardo Nanita and Johnny Lynch also were offered pro contracts, but both turned them down for college scholarships. Nanita will play at Florida International University. Lynch signed with the University of South Alabama.

Chipola coach Jeff Johnson says, "Not only are these great athletes, they're all fine people. We're very happy that these players came in here and contributed to our success and became better ball players. They will be fine representatives of Chipola."

Summer children's programs at CJC

Chipola Junior College has scheduled a number of summer programs for children of all ages.

Baseball Coach Jeff Johnson will offer a Hit Camp for ages 8-18, June 12-13 from 9 a.m. to Noon. The camp was originally scheduled for June 10-11. Cost is $100. Registration is limited. Call Johnson at (850) 718-2237.

Swimming lessons will be offered for ages two and up. Lessons are based on a combination of nationally recognized methods. Sessions are: June 10-20, July 8-18 and July 22-Aug. 1. Class times are 9 a.m., 10 a.m. and 7:15 p.m. Sessions include eight 45-minute lessons that meet Monday through Thursday for two weeks. Cost is $40 and pre-registration is required, with a $5 fee for late registration. Call Rance Massengill at 718-2473.

Pool Camps for school-age swimmers include:

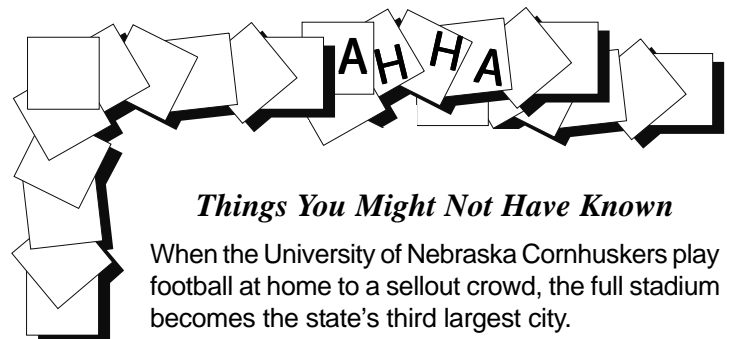

Wet and Wild Camp: June 24-27 and Stroke Improvement Camp: July 1-3. After School at the Pool for school age swimmers will be August 12-16 and 19-23. Cost is $35 per week and includes swimming lessons, games and supervised playtime. Call Rance Massengill at 718-2473.

Chipola Basketball Coach Ryan Cross will offer a Basketball Camp for grades K-8, June 24-27. The camp will meet from 8:30 a.m. to Noon in the Milton H. Johnson Health Center. The CJC coaching staff and players will teach youngsters the fundamentals of basketball. The fee of $35 includes insurance and a camp t-shirt. Call coach Cross at 718-2236.

THIS WEEK

"Chipola This Week" is a weekly publication of the CJC PR Office.
