Chipola Phi Theta Kappa named Distinguished Chapter

The Chipola chapter of Phi Theta Kappa was recognized as one of ten Most Distinguished Chapters at the recent PTK Regional Convention in Orlando.

The award included an $800 scholarship to send a CJC student to next year's International Honors Institute. There are 67 chapters in the state, five of which were recognized among the 25 best in the nation at this year's International Convention.

Chipola also was one of 15 chapters recognized as a 5-Star chapter. This is the highest level of recognition awarded to chapters.

Two individuals from CJC also were recognized. Last year's Chipola PTK president, Andrea Bruner, received the Florida Region's Most Distinguished Chapter President Award. Jackie Attaway received an Honorable Mention in the Poetry category.

Fifteen CJC students attended the convention to campaign for regional offices and to lead a fellowship presentation.

PTK PR director Stephanie Crisp, says, "We appreciate the people at Chipola and in the community who helped our chapter have such a successful year. We welcome your continued support in our efforts to make a difference at Chipola and in the communities we serve."

Happy Birthday CJC Family

Nov. 22 Steve Shimmel	Nov. 30 Michelle Stone
Nov. 24 Kevin King	Dec. 2 Tammy Neal
Nov. 27 Carole Edenfield

MIDDLE EAST TALKS

CJC history professor Robert Ivey will present a seminar on the Middle East, Tuesday, Nov. 27, at 6 p.m., and again, Wednesday, Nov. 28, at 10 a.m. Both seminars will meet in Room 300 of the Fink Natural Science Building.

The purpose of the seminar is to provide an understanding of middle-eastern culture in the wake of the Sept. 11 attacks, and the ongoing war in Afghanistan.

Ivey holds a bachelor's degree in History from the University of West Florida and a master's degree from Troy State University. He has taught history for the past 29 years.

For information, call 526-2761, Ext. 3240

STUDENT ART

A visual art exhibit of CJC student work will be on display, through Nov. 30 in the gallery of the McLendon Fine Arts Building.

The exhibit is open weekdays, from 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., and Monday and Tuesday evenings from 5 to 8 p.m.

The exhibit features work from Drawing I and II and Two-Dimensional design classes.

MISSING CAMERA

The Public Relations Office is unable to locate our Kodak Digital Camera.

If you know the whereabouts of our small, gold colored, Model DC 215, please let us know.

A small reward is offered, and you do not have to give your name.

Prepare now for Spring Registration at CJC

New students planning to enroll at Chipola Junior College in the Spring 2002 Semester are encouraged to make application by the Dec. 7 deadline.

New students must complete an application and provide high school or college transcripts.

Chipola offers hundreds of college credit courses during the day and evening, and also through independent study. The college offers the Associate in Arts (AA) degree which guarantees acceptance to Florida's public universities. Chipola also offers several Associate in Science (AS) programs, as well as a number of Workforce Development programs which provide training for high wage jobs.

Chipola's University Center provides opportunities for students to pursue a number of bachelor's and advanced degrees on the CJC campus.

Registration for the Spring Semester is Jan. 2 for returning students and Jan. 3 for new students. Classes begin Jan. 4.

For more information, call the CJC Registration Office at 718-2211.

Lady Indians to host Thanksgiving Classic

The Chipola Lady Indians host the Thanksgiving Classic, Nov. 23 and 24, at the Milton H. Johnson Health Center.

The Lady Indians play Brevard at 7:30 p.m., on Friday and Central Florida at 3:30 p.m. on Saturday. The Lady Indians were scheduled to play Seminole, Nov. 16 and Atlanta Metro, Nov. 17.

The Lady Indians slipped to 3-2 after a 71-69 loss at Santa Fe CC in Gainesville Nov. 13. Head coach Jason Keene said, "We're trying to get over the loss of D'Leisha Cockerham who is out for the season with a knee injury."

Chipola's men were scheduled to face Harper CC (Illinois) on Nov. 16 and Middle Georgia, Nov. 17, in the Panhandle Classic. The Indians host South Georgia Tech, Nov. 27.

The Indians currently are ranked 25th in Street and Smith Magazine. Of the Indians first few outings, Head coach Ryan Cross says, "I think we're young and inexperienced, but we've probably defended a little better than I expected. We've got a nice 8 or 9-man rotation, but it'll take some time for us to gel. We're a little inconsistent, but by the time February rolls around, we should be a lot better. When you've got nine new guys and only three returnees, it takes some time to get everyone together."

Cross has been impressed with several key players, especially Brandon Freeman who is averaging 20 points a game. Cross says,

"John Andrews is showing how hard he worked this summer, and Kareem Johnson and Wayne Bransom are going to be very good players for us this year."

For the latest scores, call 718-2CJC, or check out the CJC website at www.chipola.cc.fl.us

CJC open auditions for Footloose

Charles Sirmon, Chipola Junior College Theatre Coordinator, announces auditions for the musical Footloose, Nov. 26 and 27 at 6 p.m., in the CJC Theatre.

The play will run March 6 through 10, 2002. No previous experience is necessary, however, gymnastic skills are a plus.

Chipola is among the first colleges to produce the newly-released stage version of the movie.

The Oscar-nominated score includes hits from the movie sound track that reached number one and sold over 15 million copies. Footloose celebrates the wisdom of listening to young people, guiding them with a warm heart and an open mind.

For audition information, call 850-718-2227.

Chipola Christmas dinner tickets on sale

Friday, Nov. 30 is the last day to purchase tickets for the Chipola Junior College Christmas dinners. Ticket sales will end at Noon.

The CJC Fine and Performing Arts Department will present the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors," in a holiday dinner theatre setting on Dec. 6 and 7.

"Amahl" is a one-act opera originally written for presentation on NBC television Christmas Eve of 1951 by Gian Carlo Menotti.

Reserved tickets—$25 for adults, $20 for children 12 and under—are available in the CJC Fine Arts Office. Tables of eight may be reserved. Groups wishing to sit together must purchase tickets at the same time. No phone or credit card reservations are available. An early sell-out is expected.

For information call 850-718-2277.

Medical billing/coding course at CJC

Chipola will offer a new course for health professionals during the Spring 2002 semester.

Medical Insurance Billing and Coding (OST 1455) will meet Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 8:30, beginning Jan. 10.

The course is designed to introduce the student to patient billing and CPT & IDC-9- CM, the major coding system for procedures and services performed by physicians and used in hospitals and other health care settings. Cost of the three semester-hour course is approximately $150.

Persons interested in taking the course should complete a college application prior to Dec. 7. Registration for new students begins Jan. 3, 2002.

For information, call Gina McAllister at 526-2761, Ext. 3340.
