Classes are available at 10 a.m. or 7 p.m. Sessions include eight 45-minute classes which meet Monday through Thursday for two weeks. Lessons are based on a combination of nationally-recognized methods. Cost of each two-week session is $55. Pre-registration is required, with a $5 late registration fee. For information, call 718-2473 or visit www.chipola.edu.

The Chipola Cosmetology program invites cancer survivors and those living with cancer to enjoy complementary services on Tuesday, June 3 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. For more information, call 850-718-2439.
Law Enforcement classes now forming at Chipola

The Chipola Criminal Justice Training Center will offer an evening Law Enforcement Academy and a Corrections to Law Enforcement Cross-over class beginning July 21. Classes will meet weeknights from 5:30 – 9:30 P.M.

Completion of either of these programs prepare candidates to take the State Board Examination and become certified by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission upon becoming employed with a law enforcement agency.

Prior to admission, all candidates must earn a passing score on the Criminal Justice Basic Abilities Test (CJBAT) offered at the Public Service Building every Tuesday at 12:30 p.m. Cost of the test is $45.

Applicants must have a standard high school diploma or its equivalent and must undergo a medical physical examination, background check and drug screening. Financial assistance is available based upon need and eligibility.

For information regarding the application process, contact Steven Stewart, Law Enforcement Coordinator, at 718-2286.

FFA helps Ford endowment

Local school chapters of the FFA recently contributed $2,675 to the Vivian Ford Memorial Scholarship endowment at Chipola College. The money was raised with a Pork Chop dinner organized by FFA members.
