Chipola Artist Series goes bluegrass

The Chipola Artist Series will present, “Barefoot Movement,” one of the most promising bands on the bluegrass scene, Thursday, Nov. 19, at 7 p.m., in the Center for the Arts.

The music of the Nashville-based group is as down to earth as their intention for their audience: sit back, relax, take your shoes off, and stay a while. All the worries and frustrations of the world melt away as the charming four-piece acoustic band takes listeners back to a simpler place and time.

Barefoot Movement presents a variety of bluegrass from emotional ballads to rip-roaring barn-burners. Audiences can expect a collection of music that offers something for everyone. Learn more at www.barefoot-movement.com.

Season tickets—$60—are still available for the final three events in the series. Season ticket holders also get a VIP pass to Meet the Artist receptions and early renewal privileges for next season.

Barefoot Movement tickets—$18 for adults and $10 for 18 and under—are on sale now. Online tickets may be printed at home, or with an order confirmation, will-call tickets will be available at the box office the night of the show. Box Office hours are Monday-Thursday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Fridays, 9 a.m. to noon. The Box Office will be closed on all college holidays.

Chipola to host South Ga Tech Nov. 18

The Chipola Indians host South Georgia Tech in a pre-conference game Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m., in the Milton Johnson Center.

Chipola lost a close 84-78 game to IMG Academy on Nov. 6. Pope led the Indians with 16 points. Johnson scored 13. Eric Turner added 11.

Chipola trounced Pinellas County Job Corps 145-17 on Oct. 30. Chipola had 8 players in double figures led by transfer Cynthia Petke with 25 points and 14 rebounds.

Chipola whipped Central Georgia Tech 93-48 on Oct. 31. Julien led the Lady Indians with 16 points and 6 rebounds. Petke had 13 points and 18 rebounds.

The Lady Indians finished the 2015-16 campaign by capturing the NJCAA National Championship. They also won back-to-back state and conference titles (2015 and 2014).

Chipola Ensembles concert is Nov. 17

The Chipola music ensembles will present, “A Fall Celebration of Music Through the Ages” on Tuesday, Nov. 17, at 7 p.m. in the Center for the Arts.

The concert will feature a jazz ensemble, an antiphonal choir, vocal ensembles, and voices from throughout the community as they present a variety of music styles and eras.

The Chipola Chorus will be joined by the Community Chorus featuring local voices from the area. The choral ensembles are directed by vocal instructor, Dr. Christina Villaverde-Camara, who joined the Chipola faculty this fall. Dr. Villaverde has an extensive career as a lyric soprano having performed with the Florida Grand Opera, Lyric Opera of Chicago, Opera Birmingham and the National Opera of Costa Rica, among others. She also has served on the faculties of Florida State University and Samford University.

The Rock and Jazz Ensemble will perform a variety of jazz, swing, and popular music styles. Improvisation is heavily featured and the element of uncertainty will keep the audience listening for what will happen next. The Rock and Jazz Ensemble is under the direction of Richard DelaFuente.

This eclectic evening of music is free. For information, contact the Fine and Performing Arts Department at Chipola College at 850-718-2277.
Chipola students enrolled in Environmental Science (EVR 1001) were introduced to several aspects of prescribed burning through an interactive lesson developed by Florida Caverns State Park Services Specialist Billy Bailey. Students observed the process of initiating a live fire for a controlled burn.

Chipola helps Sneads High Tech Program—

The Chipola Engineering Technology program recently donated equipment to the Sneads High School Agriculture Operations Technology program. Chipola provided oscilloscopes, related electronic trainers and curriculum. Pictured from left, are: Darwin Gilmore, Chipola Dean of Workforce Development; Aubri Hanson, Chipola Engineering Technology instructor; John Shouse, Sneads High School principal; Zane Walden, Sneads High Agriculture Operations instructor; and Phyllis Daniels, Jackson County Director of Career and Technical Education.

Through the Chipola Engineering Tech AS Degree program, college officials hope to provide pathways for high school students to achieve their career and technical goals.

CHIPOLA SSS VISITS UF

Students in the Chipola College Student Support Services (SSS) program recently toured the University of Florida. SSS provides students with the opportunity to visit multiple college campuses. In 2016, SSS students will visit Florida State University — Panama City and FAMU. In addition to campus tours, SSS provides workshops on college transfer requirements and financial aid guidelines. SSS is a TRiO program funded by the U.S. Department of Education to assist first generation and students with varying social-economic classifications succeed academically in college. The Chipola SSS program is funded to serve 140 students. Interested high school or Chipola students should call 850-718-2417, or visit www.chipola.edu/SSS
