Chipola yearbooks and newspapers are now online

The Chipola yearbooks and student newspapers have been are now available through the college website.

To find the materials, visit www.chipola.edu and click on the Library link in the My Chipola box. Chijuco yearbooks from 1948 to 1983 and Papoose student newspapers from 1948 to 2007 are accessible in the online database. Materials also are searchable using a simple search which can send users directly to pages containing student names.

Chipola Librarians Renee Hopkins and Jane Stephens, and staff assistant Nell Donaldson, worked with PLAN to prepare the materials for digitization.

Two grants from the Panhandle Library Access Network made the digitization of these resources possible. The Papoose student newspapers were digitized in 2007. In 2014, the Chijuco college yearbooks were added to the collection.

The Chipola materials are located on the Florida Hidden Treasures database hosted by the Panhandle Library Access Network (PLAN). A multi-library cooperative, PLAN is composed of members from public, academic, special, and school libraries located in 17 Panhandle counties. The development of the website was funded under the provisions of the Library Services and Technology Act, from the Institute of Museum and Library Services, administered by the Florida Department of State, State Library and Archives of Florida.

Altrusa International of Marianna recently donated $2,500 to the Chipola College Foundation for the club’s annual scholarship awards.

Altrusa sponsors an annual award to a female student from Jackson County who is returning to Chipola in an effort to secure advancements in her chosen career. The scholarship can be applied toward tuition, books, and items required for coursework.

The 2014-2015 season promises to be great entertainment for all ages opening Oct. 16 with international artists, Trio Viseltear. British violinist Peter Povey, Russian cellist Alexei Romanenko, and Canadian pianist Christine Yoshikawa have delighted audiences around the world with their vibrant musicality and technical brilliance. Equally in demand as concert soloists, Trio Viseltear is a dynamic team with an impressive list of awards and personal achievements. The three performers have enjoyed debuts on many of the world’s prominent concert stages. Presenting an exhilarating program of solo, duo, and trio masterpieces from classics to contemporary, they are advocates of new music. Included in the program is the world premiere of composer Clare Shore’s “Daytripping” for violin, cello and piano - written for and dedicated to Trio Viseltear.

Cheryse McLeod Lewis, Mezzo-Soprano, will command the Chipola stage on Nov. 20 with her soulful program, Then Sings My Soul. Lewis is an accomplished performer in opera, Broadway, concert, and recital. Most recently, she performed the title role of Bess on The Gershwin’s Porgy and Bess 1st National Broadway tour. She has performed the role numerous times to critical acclaim and was commended for her “stunning vocal power” and “rich lyric mezzo sound.” The Chipola Chorus and Community Chorus will join Lewis on stage for several numbers.

Embraceable You, the Music of George Gershwin comes to the Chipola stage, Jan. 22, 2015. Sizzling dance numbers, nostalgic ballads, and romantic comedy, all backed by live musicians and set under the Paris sky—is like watching Gene Kelly and Cyd Charisse trip the light fantastic. Performers Dean and Lisa Balkwill are triple threats brimming with charm and charisma. Featuring standards - “They Can’t Take That Away From Me,” “I Got Rhythm,” and “Let’s Call the Whole Thing Off!” - the Music of George and Ira Gershwin is musical comedy at its finest.

Rounding out the Chipola line-up is Unsinkable Women, Stories and Songs from the Titanic, April 2, 2015. Deborah Jean Templin began writing Unsinkable Women while touring with the stage hit Titanic: A New Musical. Wondering what it was like when survivors finally came home, the show stimulated her investigation into the tragedy which saw 1,500 people perish on April 15, 1912. During the course of this one-woman play about women survivors, Templin portrays nine individuals, shifting from one to the other without leaving the stage. Her roles include Madeline Astor, heiress to one of America’s greatest fortunes; New York housewife Daisy Spedden, whose son’s teddy bear survived the sinking and inspired a classic children’s book; and the celebrated Molly Brown—the bold, unsinkable character who took charge of a floundering lifeboat and guided it to safety.

Evelyn Ward, Chipola Director of Fine and Performing Arts, says, “Season tickets are expected to go quickly, so don’t miss out. Some events are expected to sell out when single event tickets are available. Season tickets are the best way to be sure to get the best seat in the house.”

Season tickets—$60—are a bargain price when compared to sister institutions where prices are double or triple this amount. Season ticket holders also get a VIP pass to Meet the Artist receptions and early renewal privileges for next season. Single event ticket prices are $18 for adults, $10 for children under 18, and $5 for Chipola students and employees. Individual tickets for Trio Viseltear go on sale Sept. 19. For more information, call 850-718-2277 or visit www.chipola.edu/boxoffice.

Charles Sirmon, Chipola College Director of Theatre, will begin his 16th season at the college with a Theatre Showcase, Thursday, Sept. 18, at 7 p.m. Chipola Theatre majors will present scenes and skits in a showcase that Sirmon says, “Is a lot like Saturday Night Live on a Thursday.”

The production is general admission and allows all theatre majors the opportunity to share their talent and many for the first time. Tickets—$10—go sale Sept. 4, and are available to purchase from theatre majors, at the Center for the Arts box Office, or online at www.chipola.edu. The Showcase is a fundraiser to help Chipola theatre students with their annual trip to Atlanta where they will take a master class in improvisation and attend a performance with a professional theatre company.
