Statement of Rationale for Judgment of Compliance

Chipola College’s organizational structure is clearly defined and published. The structure defines responsibility for the administration and enforcement of college policies. Specifically, Chipola College Policy No. 1.040, Organization of Chipola College establishes the various areas of the organizational structure ([1]). In addition, Chapter 1.000, Organization and Administration of Chipola College, broadly addresses the organization and administrative responsibilities within the college ([2]).

The college’s organizational chart is published in paper and electronic format by the Human Resources Office. The names, titles, and photographs of the President and other key administrators are published annually in the college catalog ([3]). Names, titles, and year of employment of all personnel are also published annually in the catalog ([4]).
