Entrance Requirements

This major in Professional Communication offers students the opportunity to earn an undergraduate degree that includes a broad understanding of fundamental communication processes designed to meet their educational and career goals. Courses for the undergraduate degree are both theoretically based and professionally oriented. Students are offered opportunities for professional preparation through interning with local businesses and organizations. Recommended minors include business, social science, or psychology.

FSU WILL DENY ADMISSION TO ANY STUDENT WHO HAS NOT SATISFIED THE STATE FOREIGN LANGUAGE ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENT. Additional foreign language may be required. Contact Mary Ealey at 850-644-8743 for additional information.

FSU requires basic computer proficiency. CGS 1060, CGS 1100, or EME 2040 will satisfy this requirement.

The courses listed on this guide are not to be construed as a contract between the student and Chipola or the University. Course requirements may change each year. You are encouraged to work closely with your advisor.

¹ Electives should include course work in foreign language, computers, statistics, and speaking and writing courses.

² FSU requires an international/diversity course for graduation. The Chipola courses which meet a social science requirement at Chipola and a diversity requirement at FSU include GEA 2001, GEA 2002, REL 2300, and SYG 1010. It is strongly recommended that one of these courses be completed before earning your AA degree.
