This Associate in Arts degree program is designed for students who expect to transfer and earn a degree in Communication Sciences & Disorders at the University of Florida.

For additional program information, visit the UF website and the academic map.

Possible employment opportunities for this major (with a master's degree) include audiologist, consultant (speech and hearing disorders), speech-language pathologist, clinician (speech and hearing), researcher, therapist (speech and hearing), university or college teacher. For more information, visit the Occupational Outlook Handbook website.

While academic advisors, faculty and staff provide significant academic planning and related assistance to students, completion of all degree requirements, and the process of monitoring progress to that end, is ultimately the responsibility of the student.
