Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.

Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.

Writing Contest
The contest will consist of an impromptu, expository essay written in one 90-minute period and based on a choice made from three topics provided at the contest. Each essay will be evaluated according to the following criteria:
1. Substantial content
2. A clear thesis
3. An organizational plan
4. Well-developed supporting paragraphs
5. Specific, relevant details
6. Logical transitions
7. Effective word choice
8. Standard English usage

Speech Contest
The contest will consist of a prepared two to two and one-half minute speech on a topic selected from five previously announced topics. See enclosed letter for the 2003 topics. Speeches will be evaluated on the following criteria:
1. Content
2. Organization
3. Voice
4. Language
5. Platform behavior

Oral Interpretation Contest
The contest will consist of a two-to-three-minute oral interpretation of a literary work of the contestant’s own choosing. The contestant should bring five copies of his/her reading for use by the judges. Oral interpretations will be evaluated on the following:
1. Vocal projection, expressiveness and variety
2. Interpretation of the material
3. Eye contact
4. Body language (gesture, movements, etc.)

Grammar/Usage Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering all aspects of grammar, mechanics and usage. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Literature Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 75-item exam covering American and English literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Humanities Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering art, art history, architecture, music, and world literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

The President’s Reading Contest
Chipola President Dr. Gene Prough sponsors the President’s Reading Contest. The emphasis of the 50-item, short-answer exam is on drama classics. The Reading Contest will be based on the following five plays: Oedipus Rex by Sophocles, A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry, A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams, Othello by William Shakespeare, and Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw.

The winner will receive a $50 cash prize and a Presidential Medallion.

Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.
Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.

Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.
Writing Contest
The contest will consist of an impromptu, expository essay written in one 90-minute period and based on a choice made from three topics provided at the contest. Each essay will be evaluated according to the following criteria:
1. Substantial content
2. A clear thesis
3. An organizational plan
4. Well-developed supporting paragraphs
5. Specific, relevant details
6. Logical transitions
7. Effective word choice
8. Standard English usage

1. Content
2. Organization
3. Voice
4. Language
5. Platform behavior

Oral Interpretation Contest
The contest will consist of a two-to-three-minute oral interpretation of a literary work of the contestant’s own choosing. The contestant should bring five copies of his/her reading for use by the judges. Oral interpretations will be evaluated on the following:
1. Vocal projection, expressiveness and variety
2. Interpretation of the material
3. Eye contact
4. Body language (gesture, movements, etc.)

Literature Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 75-item exam covering American and English literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.
Writing Contest
The contest will consist of an impromptu, expository essay written in one 90-minute period and based on a choice made from three topics provided at the contest. Each essay will be evaluated according to the following criteria:
1. Substantial content
2. A clear thesis
3. An organizational plan
4. Well-developed supporting paragraphs
5. Specific, relevant details
6. Logical transitions
7. Effective word choice
8. Standard English usage

Grammar/Usage Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering all aspects of grammar, mechanics and usage. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Speech Contest
The contest will consist of a prepared two to two and one-half minute speech on a topic selected from five previously announced topics. See enclosed letter for the 2003 topics. Speeches will be evaluated on the following criteria:
1. Content
2. Organization
3. Voice
4. Language
5. Platform behavior

Oral Interpretation Contest
The contest will consist of a two-to-three-minute oral interpretation of a literary work of the contestant’s own choosing. The contestant should bring five copies of his/her reading for use by the judges. Oral interpretations will be evaluated on the following:
1. Vocal projection, expressiveness and variety
2. Interpretation of the material
3. Eye contact
4. Body language (gesture, movements, etc.)

Literature Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 75-item exam covering American and English literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Humanities Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering art, art history, architecture, music, and world literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

The President’s Reading Contest
Chipola President Dr. Gene Prough sponsors the President’s Reading Contest. The emphasis of the 50-item, short-answer exam is on drama classics. The Reading Contest will be based on the following five plays: Oedipus Rex by Sophocles, A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry, A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams, Othello by William Shakespeare, and Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw.

The winner will receive a $50 cash prize and a Presidential Medallion.

1. Substantial content
2. A clear thesis
3. An organizational plan
4. Well-developed supporting paragraphs
5. Specific, relevant details
6. Logical transitions
7. Effective word choice
8. Standard English usage

Grammar/Usage Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering all aspects of grammar, mechanics and usage. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Literature Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 75-item exam covering American and English literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Humanities Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering art, art history, architecture, music, and world literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

The President’s Reading Contest
Chipola President Dr. Gene Prough sponsors the President’s Reading Contest. The emphasis of the 50-item, short-answer exam is on drama classics. The Reading Contest will be based on the following five plays: Oedipus Rex by Sophocles, A Raisin in the Sun by Lorraine Hansberry, A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams, Othello by William Shakespeare, and Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw.

The winner will receive a $50 cash prize and a Presidential Medallion.
Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.

2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.

3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.

4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.

5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.

6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.

7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.

8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.

9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.

Invitation

The Letters Department of Chipola Junior College cordially invites you to participate in the Thirteenth Annual Throssell Literature/Language Festival to be held on the campus on February 21.

The Throssell Literature/Language Festival is an interscholastic competition consisting of seven contests. The contests are writing, speech, oral interpretation, grammar/mechanics/usage, literature, reading, and humanities.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.
Writing Contest
The contest will consist of an impromptu, expository essay written in one 90-minute period and based on a choice made from three topics provided at the contest. Each essay will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. Substantial content
2. A clear thesis
3. An organizational plan
4. Well-developed supporting paragraphs
5. Specific, relevant details
6. Logical transitions
7. Effective word choice
8. Standard English usage

Speech Contest
The contest will consist of a prepared two to two and one-half minute speech on a topic selected from five previously announced topics. See enclosed letter for the 2003 topics. Speeches will be evaluated on the following criteria:

1. Content
2. Organization
3. Voice
4. Language
5. Platform behavior

Oral Interpretation Contest
The contest will consist of a two-to-three-minute oral interpretation of a literary work of the contestant’s own choosing. The contestant should bring five copies of his/her reading for use by the judges. Oral interpretations will be evaluated on the following:

1. Vocal projection, expressiveness and variety
2. Interpretation of the material
3. Eye contact
4. Body language (gesture, movements, etc.)

Grammar/Usage Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering all aspects of grammar, mechanics and usage. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Literature Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 75-item exam covering American and English literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Humanities Contest
The contest will consist of a multiple-choice, 50-item exam covering art, art history, architecture, music, and world literature. Time allotted for the exam is 60 minutes.

Participants in the festival must be currently enrolled juniors or seniors from one of the high schools in the Chipola Junior College District (Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty, and Washington counties).

Deadline for entry is January 31.

Recognition will be given to first, second, and third places and to honorable mentions in each contest.

General Requirements

1. Sponsoring teachers must accompany their students to the contest.
2. Contestants must be juniors or seniors currently enrolled in a high school in Calhoun, Holmes, Jackson, Liberty or Washington counties.
3. Contestants may enter one contest per time period, for a maximum of two contests. See Festival Schedule to determine which contests will meet at the same time.
4. Each high school may enter a maximum of two students per contest, except for the President’s Reading Contest which can have four. That is, a single school may have a maximum of sixteen contestants participating in the festival.
5. Chipola will provide all materials (pencils, paper, etc.) for each contest, except oral interpretation. No study aids allowed.
6. Time limits for each contest will be rigidly observed.
7. Time will be used as a tie breaker.
8. All contests will be administered and judged by Chipola Junior College faculty on the day of the contest only. The decisions of the judges will be final and binding.
9. The purpose of the competition is not to dictate curriculum; rather, it is to encourage widespread learning and inquiry. Therefore, specific references to prepare for the competition will not be suggested, and copies of the various contest materials will not be provided after the contest to individuals or to schools.
