Run For Your Wife
October 21-24, 2004
By Ray Cooney
This superb example of the British farce had them rolling in the aisles in London and New York. A taxi driver gets away with having two wives in different areas of London because of this irregular working schedule. Complication is piled upon complication as the cabby tries to keep his double life from exploding.

Anything Goes
March 9-13, 2005
Music and Lyrics by Cole Porter
The SS America sets sail from New York to London. On board - a glorious collection of colourful 1930’s characters: a lovesick stowaway, a brassy nightclub evangelist, a beautiful young debutante and her doting mother, a lecherous old tycoon, a bumbling gangster, an English Lord with a mysterious past and a whole ship full of tap-dancing sailors and high-kicking chorus girls.

A Word to Our VIPS
Exciting changes are occurring in Chipola Theatre. Our Theatre Department is a program full of energy, talent, and an excellent reputation. This year we will continue our tradition by bringing blockbuster Broadway hits to Marianna, Florida.

The Romancers
May 12, 2005
Based on the book by Edmond Rostand
This secret love affair could be compared to Romeo and Juliet’s romance except there’s a lot to laugh at. Each parent of the couple seemingly detest the other, shouting insults over a brick wall that’s been erected to keep the boundaries between the families clearly established. Join the cast for a stage kidnapping, a party, sword fights, weddings and a great time of slapstick comedy.
