This Associate in Arts degree program is designed for students who expect to transfer and earn a degree in Political Science at the University of Florida.

For additional program information, visit the UF website.

Possible job opportunities with a major in political science include teacher, political history archivist, researcher, city planning aide, urban planner, legislative analyst, customs worker, labor relations specialist, city manager, foreign service officer, journalist, FBI/CIA special agent.

For more information, please visit The Occupational Outlook Handbook website.

The courses listed on this guide are not to be construed as a contract between the student and Chipola or the University. Course requirements may change each year. You are encouraged to work closely with your advisor.

For more information, please visit The Occupational Outlook Handbook website.

The courses listed on this guide are not to be construed as a contract between the student and Chipola or the University. Course requirements may change each year. You are encouraged to work closely with your advisor.

Entrance Requirements
A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 and a 2.5 minimum GPA in tracking courses is required for admission. This program, in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, requires additional humanities, foreign language, and natural science courses.

THE UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA WILL DENY ADMISSION TO ANY STUDENT WHO HAS NOT SATISFIED THE STATE FOREIGN LANGUAGE ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENT.

1 Students should complete the foreign language sequence through the 2200 level course before transfer to UF. Other electives may include additional computer or sociology courses.

2 No grade lower than “C” is acceptable.