Chipola’s “Foreigner” opens in November

The Chipola Junior College Theatre is in full rehearsal for the comedy “The Foreigner” which opens Nov. 2. Directed by CJC Theatre Coordinator Charles Sirmon, “The Foreigner” is an award-winning comedy by the late Larry Shue. The play has been described by critics as “foot-stompingly funny… hilarious… and the most enjoyable night of theatre in years.”

The play demonstrates what can happen when a group of devious characters must deal with a stranger who (they think) knows no English. The play is set in a rural Georgia fishing lodge often visited by Sgt. “Froggy” LeSeuer. Froggy has brought along the pathologically shy Charlie who is overcome with fear at the thought of making conversation with strangers. Froggy tells the guests that Charlie is from a foreign country and speaks no English. The fun begins as the guests attempt to teach Charlie to speak English. Charlie also overhears more than he should - the evil plans of a sinister, two-faced minister and his redneck associate; the fact that the minister’s pretty fiance is pregnant; and other revelations made with the belief that Charlie doesn’t understand the language. The fact that he does fuels the comedy and the wild climax.

The CJC cast includes: Charlie Baker by Jaromy Henry of Donalsonville, GA; Froggy LeSeuer by Chris Bishop of Marianna; Rev. Marshall by Brandon Bittner of Blountstown; Owen Musser by Charles Sirmon of Dothan, AL; Ellard Simms by Rusty Miller of Ponce De Leon, FL; Catherine Simms by Amber Williams of Graceville, FL; and Betty Meeks by Marsha Kent of Cottondale. Assistant director is Ashley Guy of Marianna.

The play will run Nov. 2, 3, and 4, at 7:30 p.m. and Nov. 5 at 2 p.m. Tickets go on sale Oct. 18 in the CJC Business Office. Tickets are $7 and $5 for 18 and under. CJC students and staff get one free advance ticket.
Fall Festival slated for October 18

Did you know that students are excused from classes on Oct. 18, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.? OK, so do you know why?

It’s the annual Fall Festival. This year’s theme is MILLENIUM MAYHEM. SGA has some great activities lined up. Hot 107.9 will be playing your favorite music. Free hot dogs and hamburgers will be served. SGA is planning tons of special attractions including Bouncy Boxing, Bungee Run, Titanic Adventure Slide and Giant Joust rides.

Don’t forget the inter-club games. Come out and compete to see which club rules the campus. So, come on down to the Health Center and listen to great music, have some free food, and beat your friends silly at the MILLENIUM MAYHEM.

Law Enforcement Cross-over Academy set at CJC

Certified correctional officers interested in training for a career in law enforcement, should contact Chipola Junior College immediately.

Due to the extensive application process, candidates are asked to apply well before the program begins Nov. 1. The 350-hour Cross-over to Law Enforcement academy will run Monday through Friday evenings from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. Estimated cost is $625. Completers are eligible to take the state Law Enforcement examination and become certified Peace Officers.

Candidates must be at least 18 years of age, earn a passing score on the Test of Adult Basic Education (TABE) and meet FDLE requirements.

For information, contact Byron Quivey (718-2286) or Paul Dudley (718-2479).

CJC FACC awards scholarships

The Chipola Junior College chapter of the Florida Association of Community Colleges (FACC) recently awarded scholarships to eight students. They are: Josh Harrell, Sean Reid, Emily Cleveland, Sam Andreu, Emily Timmons, Matt DeFelix, Allison Hartzog, and Laura Ingram. FACC also awarded textbook grants to several employees. FACC raises funds for its scholarship endowment through concession sales at CJC athletic events.

Customer Support Center training courses set at CJC

Chipola Junior College is offering three new courses for those interested in Customer Support Center Training.

The courses are CGS 1060—Introduction to Microcomputer Use; CET 1171—Introduction to Microcomputer Maintenance and Repair; and MNA 1161—Customer Service Training.

Classes will run Oct. 23 through Dec. 9. Courses will be taught in six-week cycles and will be offered mornings, afternoons, evenings and Saturdays in three-hour blocks.

The three courses are part of the AS Degree in Computer Information Technology. CJC dean of Workforce Development Bud Riviere says, “Completing the courses in no way guarantees employment at Sykes Enterprises; however, completing the course-work and the AS Degree would certainly enable someone to become employable in the Customer Support Center area.”

Gary Cook is the CJC counselor for students interested in Customer Support Center training. Ken Griffin will serve as the One Stop Center contact for the program. Angie Tyler will direct TABE testing for the program through the CJC Success Center.

Prospective students should complete a CJC application immediately in preparation for classes beginning in October. Call Gary Cook at 718-2397.

For more information, call Chipola’s 24-hour Customer Support Center program line at (850) 718-2480.

CJC Workforce programs have openings

Several Workforce Development programs at Chipola Junior College currently have openings.

Most programs offer custom scheduling and self-paced learning which allow students to complete programs at their own pace. Financial aid and remedial assistance is provided for most programs. Certificate Programs include: Accounting Applications, Applied Welding, Automotive Service Technology, Commercial Food, Culinary Arts, Correctional Officer, Computer Electronics Technology, Electronics Technology, Emergency Medical Technician, Grooming & Salon Services, Law Enforcement, Combination Law Enforcement & Corrections, Office Specialist, Patient Care Assistant, Practical Nursing, and Telecommunications.

Chipola also is offering three courses in Customer Support Center Training beginning Oct. 23 and running through Dec. 9. The six-week courses will be offered mornings, afternoons, evenings and Saturdays in three-hour blocks. Completion of the courses enables students to become employable in Customer Support Service, however, in no way guarantee employment at Sykes Enterprises.

For information about any of these programs, call 718-2270.
